

I5 Heere lyes the man whose death and life

Notes. This poem's ambivalence is shared by many other contemporary assessments of Raleigh and, like many of them, registers the positive impact of Raleigh's scaffold performance.

Heere lyes the man whose death and life
Left in the world an endles strife
Twixt Shame & Honor, Hate & Love
Which of their Powers should greatest prove
In Rawleighs Name each had his turne
That in his life, this in his Urne.

5

Source. Doctor Williams's Library MS Jones B.60, p. 274

Other known sources. Raleigh, Poems 195