

I7 Of Raleighes life and death the sum of all to tell

Notes. In one source, the scribe transcribes this ambivalent poem as the final two lines of the far more positive “Beholde Brave Raleigh here interr’d” (BL MS Cotton Titus c.7).

Of Raleighes life and death the sum of all to tell none ever livde so ill, that seem’d to dye so well.
